

Points

- 1) Agency positions are already in the court documents.
- 2) Hatch will have to deal with agency positions and testimony being either adverse or not fully in line with his position. This could prove very embarrassing to Hatch.
- 3) The tribes will make privacy, trade secrets and the non-release of documents arguments. They have good attorneys and are well qualified to make the arguments.
- 4) Due to the strike and the terrorist situation, now is not the time the Governor wants to take on Hatch and this argument
- 5) The fight against Hatch is best found with a case that has the right timing, players and facts.
- 6) This is not the right time or case to take on the AG.
